Dear Mr. Carroll:

Pursuant to recent discussions of which we have been advised regarding the dissemination of certain finished intelligence to the Vice President, we are forwarding herewith the six General Surveys published thus far in 1965 as part of the interagency National Intelligence Survey (NIS Program).

The General Survey is the basic unit of NIS coverage and is now produced at the rate of 30 per year. The NIS Reference Guide, also enclosed, summarizes the NIS Program and the NIS coverage available in addition to the General Surveys.

Very truly yours,
